

WINTER WARMERS

Pubs. Poems. Positivity.

Let's Drink Together Again

By Gavin Roberts

Your North East poet

I love boozers, I want beer
My adopted living room is right here
This my second home where I sup
Fill my chalice, fill my cup

Fill my glass which once lay empty
We shall drink post-pandemic pints aplenty
These pubs of ours they rise again
It's not a matter of if, but when

So crank up the jukebox, book the band
Let's celebrate across the land
That these our pubs the beating heart
Of folk and music, poems and art are here to stay this is just the start

So drink with me raise a glass or two
This culture is ours it's nothing new It's who we are, it's what we do
'Has tha tried a pint o that new brew?'

We love our pubs, we love these places
Filled with frothing ale and smiling faces
So get a round in, make a friend
And let's drink together again.
